

ManpowerGroup Appoints Hardeep Singh as President of Right Management India effective January 7, 2022

Gurgaon, January 07, 2022 -- ManpowerGroup today announced the appointment of Hardeep Singh as President of Right Management India Operations, effective January 07, 2022.

Hardeep has been an entrepreneur and a consultant to many Fortune 500 Organizations on areas of Talent Management, Organization Design & Development, Employee Experience, Leadership Development, Succession Planning and Career Management. Before joining Right, Hardeep was leading GTM, Strategy and Transformation for Oracle India's HR Technology business.

At ManpowerGroup, Hardeep will lead the consulting business in the capacity of President replacing Prashant Pandey who has taken up a new role as President – Rotostat Services Private Ltd.

"We are thrilled to have Hardeep on board to lead Right Management business in India. He brings with him incredibly strong knowledge and rich experience of over 24+ years in various domains. His expertise will be vital for our very ambitious India growth strategy." States Sandeep Gulati, Managing Director, ManpowerGroup India.

Hardeep Singh, new President, Right Management India said "I am excitedly looking forward to contribute at Right and engage with clients on their transformational journey. With the changes in the world of work accelerating, there are newer needs and expectations emerging. Right will focus on key aspects of growth like Agile & Autonomous organization, Future Skill readiness and Employee Experience. We plan to further strengthen our Career Transition and Talent Management solutions and make them scalable."

Hardeep studied HR at XLRI, Jamshedpur and additionally he is an Accredited Executive Coach and coaches business leaders across the region.
